The adult will be responsible for the Junior Account and any withdrawals from it must be authorised by the adult named (Guardian). Once the Junior reaches the age of 18 then it will transferred as an adult share account and the Junior gains full control of the account.

Accounts must be opened by the adult, along with minimum of £5 CASH (no card facilities)

For a Junior Account to be opened we need a copy of the Birth Certificate as proof of ID, without this the account cannot be opened.

Once the Junior reaches the age of 18 then they will be contacted and will be asked for two forms of identification the same as an adult account. Identity with a photo ie passport, driving licence or the birth certificate can still be used.

Beneficiary

Credit Union legislation allows you to optionally name a beneficiary to receive up to £5,000 of your DFCU assets (including any life insurance benefits) on death. Any such payment will be paid irrespective of any other arrangements you have made in relation to your estate after your death (e.g. your will). Any additional funds you hold will be treated as part of your estate and will not be part of this nomination. The credit union has the right to use any of your funds to pay any balances owed to it prior to releasing the funds to the nominee.

I hereby nominate _____
